RUDI DEKKERS, THE MAN WHO UNKNOWINGLY TRAINED TWO 9/11 TERRORISTS TO FLY, IS LAUNCHING HIS BOOK AT ANTHONY'S ON THE BLVD IN CAPE CORAL.

Monday, August 15, 2011 at 6:00pm Rudi Dekkers, the only man the media could turn to for answers in the aftermath of 9/11, will share his experience for a book signing and launch party at Anthony's on the BLVD in Cape Coral.

Though the shock and horror has waned over the years, many questions still remain; who were the men who perpetrated the most infamous terrorist act of the century and how did they learn to fly? Coming forward for the first time, Rudi Dekkers, the owner of Huffman Aviation, in Venice, Florida where Mohamed Atta and Marwan al-Shehhi obtained their flight licenses, tells his side of the story in his new book called 'Guilty by Association' The Untold Story of Rudi Dekkers.

Dekker's will speak at the Cape Coral, FL restaurant and share his experiences that lead up to and after the massive attack that changed America.

From his childhood of poverty in his native Holland to his dreams of being a successful pilot and teacher, Dekkers traces his life as it led to the fateful day two students changed the course of American history. Immediately vilified and attacked by the media as a complicit character, Dekkers sets the record straight here for the first time and shows how being deemed guilty by association can destroy a life.

'Guilty By Association' The Untold Story of Rudi Dekkers tells of Rudi's ownership of Huffman Aviation as he describes his interaction with Mohamed Atta and Marwan Al-Shehhi and his scrutiny by the FBI and the NSA.

Anthony's on the BLVD, the popular restaurant in Cape Coral, invites you to hear Rudi Dekker's story as he makes his first stop of his nationwide book tour. A special dinner menu will be available along with copies of the book for purchase.
